Recap

- We all know what it means to feel hunger—to be so set on our next meal. Still, hunger isn't only a physical aspect of humanity; it can also be seen as a spiritual stance!
- To have spiritual hunger is to have hunger for the things of God. To be hungry for the Kingdom of God is to be expectant for the ways God interacts and changes our lives—as well as the lives of those around us! It's this hunger that leads us to the 'more' that Brian has spoken to us about, and seeing all the things God has for us come to fruition.

Engage

- Ps Brian has been talking about the power of hunger—or appetites. Discuss the things of God that you have been hungry for lately. Was this hunger always present? How did you grow it?
- Ps Brian also talks about things that distract you from keeping your hunger alive. What are some distractions that can keep you from being hungry for the things of God?
- God uses hungry, desperate people to accomplish His plans. But, the constant pull of easy living can keep us from being desperate for the things of God. How can ease rob you of a hunger for the things of God? How can you combat this?
- What are your motivation and ambition for cultivating a hunger for God?
- Matthew 5:6 talks about the blessings that come from hunger and thirst for righteousness. Mark 8:2 says that the people were so hungry for Jesus that they didn't eat for three days. It was because of this hunger that sparked the miraculous to happen when Jesus fed them.
 - What are some things you are hungry and believing for right now?
 - What are you doing now to cultivate this hunger?
 - What can you do to increase your hunger for the things of God?
 - Is there something keeping you back from engaging and growing this hunger?
 - Finally, what actions can you take this week to fully utilize this power of hunger?
